CELEBRATING THE LEGACY OF MASTERS

Bijoy Ramachandran is an architect and urban designer based in Bangalore. He is currently a partner at Hundredhands. Bijoy has a Bachelors degree in Architecture from BMS College, Bangalore University, a Masters degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, USA, in Architecture & Urbanism and in 2012 he did the Glenn Murcutt Master Class in Sydney, Australia.

He has been a panelist twice at the annual all-India undergraduate thesis review, the Kurula Varkey Design Forum, at CEPT University, Ahmedabad, and is currently the Design Chair in the Department of Architecture, BMS College of Architecture, Bangalore. Bijoy is also an external moderator for the final year design studio at the Department of Architecture, University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka and serves on the Academic Council of the Wadiyar Centre for Architecture Mysore and Avani Institute of Design, Glicutt. Apart from architecture he has also made two films - Architecture & the City: A Bangalore Perspective, a documentary feature on professional practice in the city and Doshi, on the Pritzker award winning Indian architect and B.V. Doshi, directed by Premjit Ramachandran. Doshi has been screened nationally and internationally and was an official selection at the Architecture and Design Film Festival, New York, 2018, the Architect: Africa Film Festival, South Africa, 2010, and the Architectural Film Festival, Rotterdam, 2009. The film is also now part of the archives at the Cité de l’Architecture et du Patrimoine in Paris.

The conference shall be followed by The AESA AWARDS 2020 CEREMONY from 6:00 pm onwards which is followed by the Fellowship Dinner.

Please note that a separate registration is needed to attend the AESA Awards.
